2nd Grade Spotlight

Second grade has been working hard over the last few months. Currently, we are learning about paleontologists and the tools they use during their expeditions. Students will create their own compelling narrative describing their own fossil discovery at the end of the unit.

Students continue to learn new spelling patterns to apply in their reading and writing activities. Daily, students meet in small groups to practice those skills.

In math, they have completed a unit on the study of measurement and are now using number lines to solve double digit addition and subtraction equations. Thank you for helping your student get to school every day, so they can continue to grow.
